2024 Ski Season Update #1

The club has traditionally closed our priority bookings in mid February and allocated priority bookings by 1 March. For the 2024 ski season, CPSR are offering lodge stayers oversnow, lift and lesson packages with a 20% discount. This offer expires on January 31, 2024. The CPSR packages assume you have accommodation and the packages are non-refundable. Effectively our members are locked out of the discount as their accommodation is unconfirmed as of January 31. Our booking priority round has been publicized to end on February 13 and this, in fairness, can't be changed.

Following discussions between the club and CPSR, CPSR will allow CPSR discount packages to be moved from the booked date to a new date for those members who don't get their first booking dates. This movement of the CPSR booking will be effected via an email from the club to CPSR. This flexibility will only apply in 2024. CPSR bookings from 2024 will not be moved to 2025.

For some members this will allow you to immediately book CPSR package on the assumption that your lodge accommodation will be confirmed. If your first accommodation booking is unsuccessful, the club will normally offer members a selection of alternate dates. If you can accept a lodge date change then CPSR will also allow a date change for their package.

If you are booking in prime times such as school holidays and have little or no date flexibility then you may prefer to be prudent and wait on the lodge booking confirmation.

Our discussions with CPSR have been fruitful and have provided some flexibility. Unfortunately it will not resolve everyone's concerns.

To avoid future issues the the club will move our 2025 booking cutoff to December 1, 2024. This will allow all bookings to be allocated by January 15, 2025 and prior to the CPSR January 31 deadline. This change may impact your cash flow, however the CPSR discounts are significant and should be available to our members. Additionally lodge guest bookings made after January 15 will be confirmed on payment and these guests could also then take up the 2025 CPSR offer. I welcome comments on the December 1 2024 deadline. The board will make a final decision on the booking dates in July 2024.

Best regards
Jon Barber
